From Tuesday August 29, to Saturday September 2, 1786.

St. James's, September 2.

THE following Addreſs of the Archbiſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitical Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Canterbury, has been preſented to the King by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop, attended by the Reverend the Dean, the Archdeacon, Dr. Dering, Dr. Barford, Dr. Fowell, Dr. Radcliffe, Dr. Pennington, Mr. Horne, and Mr. Pennington: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Archbiſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitical Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Canterbury.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbiſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitical Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Canterbury, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, to expreſs the grateful Sentiments of our Hearts on the Bleſſing vouchſafed to a whole People in the Perſon of their Prince. Averted by His protecting Arm, whoſe Prerogative it is to give Salvation unto Kings, the intended Blow, which threatened ſo much Calamity and Confuſion to theſe Kingdoms, has ſerved only to diſplay your Majeſty's Magnanimity and Humanity in the Moment of Danger; to call forth the general Voice of Thankfulneſs and Joy; and to convince the World, that the Hand of Inſanity alone could be lifted up againſt a Life ſo deſervedly honoured, and endeared to all Orders and Degrees of Men amongſt us.

May the Almighty God, who hath placed and preſerved your Majeſty on the Throne by His Providence, protect and ſupport you, through a long Courſe of Years, to be a Bleſſing to your Subjects. May your Majeſty's Life be diſtinguiſhed by every Satisfaction which can reſult from the Rectitude of your own Heart; from the Health, Honour and Proſperity of our moſt Gracious Queen and your Illuſtrious Family; and from the beſt Tribute which a good Prince can receive, the increaſing Attachment of your faithful People.

[Signed by the Archbiſhop and 69 of the Clergy.]

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Saliſbury, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop, and the Reverend the Archdeacon: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Saliſbury.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Saliſbury, approach your Royal Perſon, deeply impreſſed with all thoſe Sentiments of Piety and Veneration, that flow from a Senſe of the imminent Danger which your Majeſty, and thoſe whom a kind Providence has placed under your auſpicious Government, have ſo recently eſcaped. While we feel the moſt fervent Gratitude to the Almighty for averting a Blow, which nothing but Inſanity could have aimed, we feel anxious alſo to expreſs to your Majeſty, and to manifeſt to the World, the Intereſt we take in the Preſervation of a Life moſt juſtly endeared to your People, by the uniform Attention your Majeſty has ſhewn to their Religious and Civil Liberties, and by the Example you have ſet of the Diſcharge of every public, private, and domeſtic Duty.

[Signed by the Biſhop and 69 of the Clergy.]

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Dioceſe of Worceſter has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Biſhop and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Dioceſe of Worceſter, beg Leave to preſent our ſincereſt Congratulations to your Majeſty on your late happy Deliverance from the Danger of Aſſaſſination.

We underſtand, Sir, that the Aſſaſſin was mad; and we eaſily believe that nothing leſs than Inſanity could prompt any of your Majeſty's Subjects to entertain a Thought ſo deſperately wicked. But Inſanity, though the Object of Pity, and therefore in the late Inſtance, ſo juſtly and magnanimouſly reſpected by your Majeſty's Humanity, is not leſs, perhaps is more alarming than ſober Villainy itſelf. We therefore bleſs and adore that good Providence, which protected your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon in a Moment of ſo much Danger. And we ſhall never ceaſe to put up our fervent Prayers to Almighty God, that He will be pleaſed continually to watch over a Life ſo precious to all your Subjects, and in particular to your Clergy, who have the Happineſs to ſee themſelves and their Miniſtry countenanced by your Majeſty in a Way, that is obſerved by all, and can give Offence to none; we mean, Sir, by the ſhining Example of your Majeſty's Life, faſhioned on the Faith and Hope of the Goſpel.

[Signed by the Biſhop and 33 of the Clergy.]

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of the Town of Beverley, has been preſented to the King by the Marquis of Carmarthen: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of your Town of Beverley, in the County of York.

Deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of the high Importance of your Majeſty's Safety to the Welfare of all your Dominions, we feel a Pleaſure and Satisfaction in your happy Preſervation, proportioned to the Horror which was excited in our Breaſts by the abominable and atrocious Attempt on your Sacred Life.

May the Divine Providence long continne to proteſt your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and render your People deſerving of the Bleſſings derived to them from your many amiable and exalted Virtues.

Given under the Common Seal of this Corporation, this Twenty-fifth Day of Auguſt, in the Year of our Lord, 1786.

Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Eſſex.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Eſſex, beg Leave to lay before your Majeſty our ſincereſt Congratulations on your late providential Eſcape from the moſt deſperate and horrid Attempt made on your Royal Perſon; and we pray to the Almighty, who in that Moment of Danger protected your Majeſty's Life, to bleſs you with a long and happy Reign over a grateful People, conſcious of the many Bleſſings they enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and virtuous Government.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and loyal Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, Citizens and principal Inhabitants, of the City of Durham, and its Environs.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's moſt loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, Citizens and principal Inhabitants of the City of Durham, and its Environs, with true heart-felt Satisfaction, and the higheſt Adoration to the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Things, preſume humbly to approach your Throne, to tender our ſincere Congratulations upon your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the Hands of an inſane and dangerous Aſſaſſin.

We cannot too much implore the Divine Being to preſerve your Sacred Majeſty, and your Royal and Auguſt Houſe, at all Times from every Danger; but our moſt unfeigned Thanks are particularly due, at this Time, to Him, for protecting your Majeſty's moſt invaluable Life, at the preſent important Criſis, when the political Exiſtence and Salvation of theſe Kingdoms depend thereupon, as we have the Pleaſure to ſee every Exertion making, under your Majeſty's Auſpices, to render them once more glorious, flouriſhing, and the Envy and Admiration of the World, and which, under Providence, may, in future, prevent Wars and Bloodſhed, that have ſo long and ſo frequently deluged every Quarter of the Globe, to the Diſgrace of Chriſtianity.

Every Clime in which your Majeſty's lenient Government prevails, would, in Concert with your Royal Family and us, have long had great Reaſon to lament their infinite Loſs, had ſuch a deſperate and fatal Attempt upon your Sacred Life ſucceeded.

We therefore ardently hope and pray, that the Omnipotent may keep your Sacred Majeſty, and your Royal and Illuſtrious Family, under His protecting Power; and that your Majeſty and your lineal Succeſſors may, like your Royal Predeceſſors of glorious Memory, continue long to ſway the Imperial Sceptre of theſe Realms, with undiminiſhed Splendor, Moderation and Juſtice.

We beg Leave to aſſure you how much we deteſt and abhor every Principle injurious to your Majeſty's Perſon and Honor, and do, with the ſincereſt Joy, congratulate your Majeſty on your Eſcape from the late vile Attempt againſt your Sacred Perſon; and it is our fervent Wiſh, that your Majeſty may, with uninterrupted Felicity, enjoy that Throne, which you have filled with ſo much dignified Virtue and Humanity.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Cheſter, has been preſented to the King by Thomas Groſvenor, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, and Richard Groſvenor, Eſq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The unanimous Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Dublin.

Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, approach your Throne with Hearts full of Gratitude and Thankfulneſs to Divine Providence, which, by preſerving your Majeſty's ineſtimable Life, has ſaved us from the deepeſt Affliction, and continued the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government.

While we look back with Horror at the Danger from which your Majeſty has been delivered, we have the Satisfaction to think, that none but the Hand of Madneſs could be raiſed againſt your Sacred Perſon; for, judging by our own Feelings, we believe your Majeſty has not a Subject who would not freely oppoſe his Breaſt between your Majeſty and the Aſſaſſin.

May your Majeſty long continue to reign in the Hearts of a faithful and loyal People; and may that Providence, which has ſo greatly favoured us in your Preſervation, render us worthy Subjects of ſo good a King.

Thankful for the Bleſſings we enjoy under the beſt of Sovereigns, we gladly ſtep forward to teſtify our laſting Attachment to your Royal Perſon, Family and Government; and we ſincerely hope that the Divine Hand, which has averted the Stroke againſt your invaluable Life, will long preſerve it for the Happineſs of your People.

We are fully perſuaded, from the univerſal Attachment of your Majeſty's Subjects to your Royal Perſon, firmly eſtabliſhed by the Mildneſs and Clemency of your Majeſty's Government, that this alarming Attempt could only proceed from the Inſanity of the Perſon who made it.

May that Almighty Being, who rules all Events, ſtill continue to guard and protect from all Accidents, and from every Danger, your Majeſty's moſt invaluable Life, ſo juſtly dear to all your faithful Subjects; and that your Majeſty may long continue happily to reign over an affectionate and grateful People is our moſt fervent Prayer.

We have ſeen Happineſs ſo generally diffuſed among our Fellow-Subjects, and have experienced ſo much ourſelves, under your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government, that we are convinced the Idea of ſo horrible an Attack could have taken Place only in the Mind of a Perſon affected with Inſanity.

We pray that your Majeſty's Life may be protected by Providence to a very diſtant Period, and that your Majeſty's Reign may continue to be, as it has been, a Source of Felicity to a grateful and affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall in Sandwich aforeſaid, the Twenty-ſixth Day of Auguſt, 1786.

Nothing but Inſanity could have induced ſuch an Attack upon your Majeſty, whoſe moral Conduct may be looked up to as an Example worthy of the Imitation of your Subjects, and whoſe Reign has been marked with every proper Attention to the Welfare and Happineſs of your People.

Fully ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, we muſt at all Times feel of what Importance your Life is to the Proſperity of your Subjects, but more eſpecially at this Period, when the Nation is emerging from the Difficulties of the late War; and we have the Satisfaction to ſee, that by the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and the ſalutary Meaſures which have been lately adopted, for the Improvement of the Public Revenue, this Country is again riſing to a moſt reſpectable and flouriſhing Situation.

Convinced, as we are, that the Happineſs of your Majeſty and of your People is inſeparable, we moſt ſincerely hope and truſt, that your Majeſty's Life will be long preſerved to us, and that you will long enjoy the Satisfaction of reigning over a brave, loyal and united People.

Happy are we (and the Nation in general have Cauſe to be ſo) that this Attempt did not ſucceed. Had it ſo done, we muſt inevitably have been involved in the greateſt of all Calamities, the Loſs of a great and virtuous Prince, the Father of His People.

That your Majeſty may long reign in the Hearts as well as over the Perſons of your Subjects, and at a very late Period exchange this your earthly for an immortal Crown, is the ſincere Prayer of, Great Sire, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leiceſter, in Common Hall aſſembled, beg Leave, with all due Humility, to preſent our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the infatuated Hand that was lifted up againſt your Sacred Perſon. We bleſs the Almighty, who, though permitting the Attempt, fruſtrated the ſhocking Deſign, which, had it been carried into Execution, would have not only deprived us of the moſt gracious and benign Sovereign that ever ſat on the Throne of theſe Realms, but deranged that Syſtem of Government which has brought us out of the loweſt State of Deſpair, and raiſed us to a Degree of National Proſperity beyond Expectation, and which will, we truſt, under your Majeſty's paternal Care, ſoon reſtore us to our former Glory. It is therefore our ardent Prayer, that the King of Kings may continually watch over and guard your Majeſty's precious Life, that you may long, very long, continue to reign over a happy, united, and flouriſhing People.
